

Merrimack Cardinals Refund Policy

The Merrimack Cardinals recognize that there are times when a child decides they no longer want to participate or a situation comes up where they can no longer participate in a season after registration. The organization is sensitive to these situations, however there are expenses the Cardinals incur that cannot be refunded after certain dates.

We have outlined the following refunds based on cost to the organization:

1 – Prior to start of practice

Any withdrawal prior to the start of practice can receive a full refund less a $20 administrative fee.

2 – First week of practice

Any withdrawal after practice has begun will receive 50% of your original registration fee. Once practice has started, we have already incurred many expenses including equipment, insurance and other administrative fees.

3 – After 3 weeks of practice

Any withdrawal after the first 3 weeks of practice, no refund will be issued. After this point, a significant investment has already been paid including equipment, registration fees and other administrative fees.
